As a Licensed Financial Advice Provider, we have no specific conditions on our license that limit or restrict the advice we may give.

What financial advice can I provide to you?

I can give financial advice on Insurance Products for Domestic clients.

Our Insurance product providers are Insurance businesses in New Zealand that are licensed under the Reserve Bank under Section 19 of the Insurance (Prudential Supervisor) Act 2010. The Insurers have a financial strength rating from an approved rating agency. To view the Insurer ratings, click on the link <https://www.rbnz.govt.nz/regulation-and-supervision/insurers/licensing/register>.

Amicus Brokers Limited's Insurance product providers are required to have financial strength ratings with a minimum of A- and above. When you receive a quote from us you will be supplied with the current strength ratings for the product providers that we have quoted for. If you accept the financial advice, we will supply a current rating for the product provider that you have selected.

Limitations and restrictions

I am committed to providing my clients with good financial advice that is suitable for my client's needs. I only provide financial advice on Insurance Products.

What fees do we charge?

We may charge clients fees for financial advice. We will tell you what the fee is before you accept any advice from us or our Advisers. We will charge fees that are payable by you, the client, when our advice is followed, accepted, and the insurance policy is purchased. The fees we charge are for our service, placement, implementation, and administration of the insurance policies that you have chosen to accept and purchase. The total fees payable may increase with the number of insurance policies that you choose to purchase.

The fees are payable by you and are due by the effective date of the policy which is on the invoice.

How do we act with Integrity?

To ensure that I prioritise your interests above my own, I follow an advice process that ensures recommendations are made based on your individual goals and circumstances. I complete annual and ongoing training about how to manage conflicts of interest and a register of interests is maintained. Amicus Brokers Limited monitors these registers and provides additional training where necessary. Amicus Brokers Limited performs an annual review of the compliance programme.

You should be aware there are potential conflicts of interest that you, the client, may need to take into consideration when you decide to seek and accept financial advice from us, I will make you aware of any conflicts when giving advice.

How do we get paid for the Financial Advice and Products that we provide to you?

Amicus Brokers Limited does receive commission when you, the client, accept our financial advice and purchase an insurance policy. The commission is paid by the Insurer (product providers) for the insurance business on each insurance policy that you, the client, purchase. The commission paid to us can be between the range of 0-25% with the exception of Travel Insurance, which ranges from 0-30% of the insurer portion (total premium of the Insurance Policy less government levies and taxes).

NZbrokers Management Limited

We are a member of NZbrokers Management Limited, NZbrokers Management Limited provides services such as IT, education, training, technical insurance products, claims support and group member benefits to us. When a client accepts our financial advice as your adviser and purchases a policy NZbrokers may receive a service fee or technology fee from the Product Provider.

Profit Share

Amicus Brokers Limited have a profit share arrangement with AMP General and may receive 0-7.5% of the company premium as commission. The profit share commission varies depending on volume, profit, and growth.

I receive an annual salary that may include bonuses based on client service performance and achievement of company goals.

How can you depend on the Advice you receive?

I have not been subject to any other reliability events that would influence you, the client, in deciding whether to seek or obtain advice from me as your adviser.

How to make a Complaint?

If you have a problem, concerns, or you are dissatisfied with either a product or financial advice service that has been provided by Amicus Brokers Limited or myself and you require action to be taken please tell us so that we can help and fix the issue.
